Mrs. Davy of D. C. Surprise Performer as 32 Survive in U. S. Women's Golf

From the

PRESS BOX After Skinning Past

Where Would We Be Without Max Baer?

By JOHN LARDNER.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (N.A.N.A.). -Where would the boxing business be without Maximilian Adelbert Baer, the fairiest flower of Livermore, Calif.? Mr. Baer himself has an interesting answer to this ques-

"No place," says Mr. Baer, stirring the sails and no relief in galleries into a state of gawk-eyed sight, Mr. Baer steps forward to fill exhaustion before the shooting is Jersey City tomorrow night he the running fights the new hibernian hope, Patrick Edward Comiskey. They were to keep him from stagnation. He ond round: had promise, but he wasn't ready for Joe Louis. The 1940 fight season was dying on its feet. So the Peggy Graham, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Max Sees Victory, Another Crack at Champ Louis

"And when 1 stiffen this kid." expert on Baeriana, "I will set up would they be without me?"

like to mention the subject to Mr. ton, Ky. Baer, but suppose Max loses the fight? In that case his work will be interesting duels between Nancy be doubly valuable, for that will Hurst of Portland and Mary Morse set up a Comiskey-Louis battle and of Pebble Beach, Clara Callender of twice as much dough for everybody. Long Beach, Calif., and Catherine It will be the making of Comiskey Shuster of Pasadena, to name two. and the salvation of the 1941 season.

leading contenders, but wanted to see Sharkey and Schmel-

Always Boosting Pugilism Is One Way or Another

"So I rolled up my sleeves." says Dutchman, and fixed things for

No sooner had Baer knocked out weary gulp, collapsed in front astonishment, and a Baer-Carnera fight was on the fire. It was a good fight; it paid well, and the boxing game began to bloom again

"I get licked by Braddock," continues Mr. Baer. "That was another great boost for the game, though I virtue prevails. I was a horrible character at the time, and Braddock was a fine, clean-living Amer-I sometimes wish he had knocked me out." says Mr. Baer "It would have served me

Joe Louis emerged at this functure but it was Baer, and only Baer, with whom he could draw a million-dollar unselfishly happy in the thought that the Louis-Braddock fight, which dock if it wasn't for me," points out the great rescuer. "Louis owes his

In the off season. Max went abroad Gets Clean Sweep as Nats and lost to Tommy Farr.

Even Proves Great Help Without Such Intentions

"I didn't mean to do it." says Mr. Baer, "but it made the season of 1938-9 a success. On the strength of licking me. Farr came over here and fought everybody, for good gates."

Maxie modestly admits that he "made" Lou Nova shortly thereafter, by getting knocked out by that interesting and ill-fated character.

service last June, by ridding the world of Galento, who might have messed everything up," concludes "Now I am saving the fall season by fighting this Comiskey. and next year I undoubtedly will save the season of 1941. Where would they be without me? The beauty of Mr. Baer is that does just as much good by losing as by winning. To my certain knowledge, the gentleman never has deliberately blown a duke. He is fust a good enough fighter to win him five times. at times, and a bad enough fighter to lose at others, and a very valuable being shut out by the New Yorkers, fellow, all in all. Where, as he says, would we be was a close one, 3 to 2, over Johnny

Official Scores

Scores Uphill Victory Qualifying Round

Beats Mrs. Russ on 18th; Today's Card Packed With Hot Matches

By ROBERT MYERS, DEL MONTE, Calif., Sept. 25 .-Thirty-two surviving contenders for the National women's amateur golf Every time the fight game reaches championship headed into a hectic a state of utter calm, with no wind day today and promised to send the

"This racket would have died One round was on the morning seven times in seven years if it schedule and another, the third of wasn't for me," says Maxie bash- match play, was set for the after-"Name any big fight in the noon, which will leave eight in the last seven years, and I was either title chase when dusk settles over the Pebble Beach course.

These words (which Mr. Baer will | Two or three upsets of the mild never miss; he has a million more) variety were recorded yesterday, but are spoken on the eve of still an- all of the top-flight candidates for other of Maxwell's rescue jobs. In the United States crown stayed in

Keen Matches Numerous. Included here are matches which wondering what to do with Patrick loom as the most bitter of the sec-

Helen Sigel, Philadelphia, vs. Beatrice Barrett, Minnetonka, Minn.; vs. Jane Cothran, Greenville, S. C.; Dorothy Kirby, Atlanta, Ga., vs Barbara Ransom, Stockton, Calif.; Marjorie Ferrie, Pasadena, Calif., vs. Jean Bauer, East Providence, R. I.; says Mr. Baer, the foremost living Mrs. Dan Chandler, Dallas, vs. Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, Fort Worth another Baer-Louis fight and a lot Tex.; Elizabeth Hicks, Pasadena, vs. more dough for everybody. Where Mrs. Mary Mozel Wagner, Portland, Oreg., and Mrs. Gregg Lifur, Los That's just one side of it. I didn't Angeles, vs. Marion Miley, Lexing-

If that isn't enough, there should

National Champion Betty Jame-Things were very dead in the son of San Antonio, Tex., who won spring of 1933. Honest John Shar- yesterday from Mr. Louis Lengfeld, key, the tired sailor, was heavy- Los Altos, Calif., by 7 and 6, met weight champion, and Primo Car- Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, nera and Max Schmeling were the Mich., and Medalist Dorothy Traung nobody of San Francisco, who breezed out a victory by the same score over Mrs. ing again, or, for that matter, the George Nash, San Jose, Calif., entwo Europeans, Carnera and gaged Mrs. C. H. Smith, Chula Vista,

Surprise victories yesterday included the win of Grace Amory, Glen Head, N .Y., over Ellamae Wil-Mr. Baer, "and knocked out the defeat of Mrs. Frank Russ, Burlingame, Calif., by Mrs. Myron Davy, Washington, D. C.'s, lone entrant, Schmeling than Mr. Sharkey, with after the latter barely had qualified in a playoff, and the defeat of Mrs. J. Tescher, Berkeley, former Northern California title winner, by Mrs. Harry Pressler, San Gabriel,

> Seventeen-year-old Georgia Tainter, Fargo, N. Dak., two-time State champion, met Mrs. Pressler today, Outstanding shots in yesterday's play were made by Miss Sigel, who missed a hole-in-one by 8 inches, and the eagle 3 scored by Miss Hicks on the hazardous eighth after shoot> ing over a deep chasm and sinking a 30-foot putt.

Washington's Mrs. Davy staged a spectacular uphill battle to survive the first round and engaged Miss Amory in the second round today. Three down at the ninth hole and squared the match on the 16th and registered a par 5 on the 18th to win the match, 1 up. Mrs. Davey played was out in 41 and back in 48.

Yanks' Home Jinx on Leonard

Lose Pair in New York

GOLF FINALISTS-Richard A. Jennings (left) and Roy Smith, who meet today in a 36-hole match for D. C. publinx title, due to their victories yesterday over Andy Oliveri and John Jankowski, -Star Staff Photo.

Astor Clarke's Machinations Put Him on Cellar Pin Team; Krausses' Sister Stars

pion Rosslyn club and ever on a with 127-321 paced the victory. District League who sponsored the idea of a baladvantage. Tonight at Chevy Chase his Lafayette team engages the strong Chevy Chase outfit in one of six matches scheduled and his efforts to lift his club out of last place will be watched with interest. Lucky Strike, topping the circuit with five wins out of six games, tangles on its home drives with Hyattsville. Convention Hall will be host team to the Penn Recreation. Brookland entertains the runner-up Clarendon team at Brookland. Georgetown is at home against Rosslyn and Arcadia's pinmen visit King Pin. All matches are at 7:30.

Another Krauss Stars.

Isabel Riefenberg, sister of the famous Krausses, Harry, Lonnie and Bill, with a season record set supplied the punch that gave the Tigers a 3-0 win from the Blue Birds in the G. A. O. Mixed League. Charley Murdock, Feather Merchants, was tops for the male shoot-

Nosed out on the final night of last season, the runner-up Edmonds Optical pinettes were downright happy over their 2-1 win from the champion Shamrocks as the Washington Ladies' League inaugurated its 21st each nine in 44, while Mrs. Russ season at the Lafayette. Mary Magnotto, with top string of 136

Spearhead of last season's cham- and a 341 set and Elizabeth Harris

Perennial champion of the city's winner, Astor Clark for the first oldest woman's loop, Lorraine Gulli time finds himself with a team was tops with 345 as she led the El occupying the cellar spot in the Gees in a 3-0 win from the Caranced league this season so far has Washington Women's Duckpin Asfound the plan working none to his sociation, banged out 122-327 for Tiffany Shop. A new team, the Del Rios, swamped Perusso with Ida Weinberg's 317 high.

Rolling 124-316 for the Lucky Astor Clarke, made an impressive

Rosslyn Race Deadlocked. Raybestos and Washington Canoe.

only clubs to sweep their matches. Friday at 10 a.m. moved into a first-place deadlock in Ordie Brown's 380, polished off the Clodfelters while the latter, with Martin's 355 high, blanked Capital

131 average. He slid to 126. Billy of 384 last night at Convention Hall, Stalcup replaced Joe Freschi as the runner-up with 124-2. His 383 was the heaviest wallop as Arlington Cleaners defeated Regal Neon, 2-1. Freschi dropped to 123-4 with 350. Arthur Nelson banged out top game of 162 and a 383 set to shine in Shaffer Flowers 2-1 decision over Kidwell Senators. Francis Robertson garnered top set of 390 to feature H. J. Brown's odd-game win from Manning's Service. Harold Hodges' 379 gave O'Meara Tile the rubber game from Y. M. C. A.

High Government officials will attend the Civil Aeronautics League opener at 9 tonight at Convention Hall. The loop is composed of 14 man and 6 woman teams.

Payne's 147 effort was the highlight as Greyhound chalked up a season record of 572 in the Diamond Cab League. Rus Hopkins' 368 was top set. Restaurant trounced Service Station to increase its lead

Hartung's Big Game Tells. Fred Hartung's 151 was the decisive plow as the Walnuts, with high scores calling a halt after seven innings. League at the Lucky Strike. Felix It may be that Leonard will not Piniera of Hemlocks carried off set

The Catholic quint monopolized scoring in the Takoma Church Joe Gordon had singled. From that League opener at the Takoma in the first game of a double-header point on, Leonard was in trouble and Recreation as Osborne, with 142used his knuckler only sparingly, as 375, topped team counts of 578-

Orioles, Even in Series, Play Bears at Home

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25 .- The Baltimore Orioles, all square with the Newark Bears after the first two games of the International League

Tonight the Orioles will send but it turned out a sour one. Floyd Stromme, who lost a four-hit Krakky was wild and ineffective. game in his first playoff game and won on six hits in the second. against Newark's Hank Borowy. by the relief pitching of The former Fordham speedballer Johnny Murphy, who now has eight stopped Jersey City with three hits in his first playoff appearance.

Gridmen Seek Scrimmage

A scrimmage Sunday is sought by the New York crowd. His triple hit the Brookland Boys' Club 150-pound right center bleacher wall on eleven. Call Manager Charley tenth tee. Byrnes at Dupont 2587 after 6

Football Game Sought

An out-of-town game with a strong unlimited eleven is wanted

New League Boosts Roster of National Pin Congress

Rhode Island Avenue Business Men Enter Entire Membership

League memberships in the Na-tional Duckpin Bowling Congress were increased considerably when the recently formed Rhode Island Avenue Businessmen's loop signed in a body at the new King Pin after Ed Jeffries was elected presi- cording to the pairings announced dent, John Johnson vice president, and Elvin Shank, scorer. Dynmatic Sport Shop posted 600-1,649 to shut out Nesline's as the loop completed its third week. Game honors went to Graham Fanshaw of Stanley 5-and-10 with 141. Russell Parks' top 373 enabled Brimcefield to drub Yates Barbers.

Except for the 134 rolled by Ann Ford of Holy Comforter C team. All Saints bowlers dominated the opening of the Catholic Ladies' Mary Shields' 335 led in team scores succeeds James Schultz. Other of- Chase. ficers elected were James E. Larday, Thursday and Friday. There still are places available, with the Spring-Chevy Chase match. league intending to go to 100 teams. Betty Simpson Hill at Hobart 4559 pro and 11 amateurs in each case, is handling applications.

The two new Buckingham Athletic Association Leagues of 14 man and 6 woman teams ushered in their seasons at the Clarendon Bowling Teams 1, 4, 8, 9 and 14 smashed out 3-0 wins, respectively, from Teams 13, 10, 7, 2 and 3. Reds Edmonston is scorer for both cir-

Lucile Young Returns. Lucile Young, back from Kansas

after a 6-week vacation, announces that her Chevy Chase District Ladies' League team, besides herself will be composed of Dot Crawford, Stimmy Hart, Rose Tobey, Boots Pettit and Pauline Ford. Charley Young, former assistant secretary of the National Five, Allyn Clarke, daughter of Duckpin Bowling Congress, accompanied his wife. He's on a two-week vacation from his Farm Credit Administration job in Omaha, Nebr. Mrs. Young, Chevy Chase bowling instructress, will start her classes on League when the former, paced by season record game for the Georgetown Commercial League. His big was not trained properly for the poke enabled Hillow's Cafe to establish a second season high of 1,836. The veteran Joe Callan, one stick Chick Hollidge of the Clodfelters, short of 400, shone as Sam's Shop with 349, shot a big hole in his top assumed the league leadership with Club-Throwing Contest six straight wins.

Lou Bonbrest's high 136-355 led as Charity rolled top counts of 581-1.625 in the Elks League. The Antlers, with 5-1, are pacesetters. Sharing the spotlight at the New Recreation was Sue Lewis, Javbirds, with 110, and Charlotte Skinner. Cardinals, with 291 in the Ladies' Elks League, Mrs. Sally Pearce, wife of Leonard Pearce, is scorer for the woman's loop.

> Cameos Retain Lead. Paced by Davis' 407, Cameo

nicked Fluorescent Planned for the odd tilt to hold first place in the ern Electric fell before the top to records just released. Bale, a Atlantic.

Parcel Post, with a sweep over Chevy Chase Runts, deadlocked first place in the Letter Carriers' League with U street. Each team has won seven of its nine games. Tops at the Brookland Recreation were Gus Frederichs of Central with 145 and the W. P. A. Recreation Junior Gerardi of U street with 361.

The Lucky Strike Ladies' League will usher in its fifth season at 7:30 tonight at the Lucky Strike.

Fights Last Night

NEW YORK.—Lou Salica. 117½.

New York won undisputed possession of Bantamweight championship by outpointing Georgie Pace. 118. Cleveland (15). Julie Kogon. 133. New Haven. Conn.. knocked out Victor Troise. 141. Mount Vernon. N. Y. (2).

WHITE PLAINS. N. Y.—Joe Iannotti. 1303. New Haven. outpointed Joe Exhevarria. 130. Puerto Rico (8).

NEW HAVEN. Conn.—Ai Gainer. 171. New Haven. outpointed Al Sinbaldi. 180. Berlin. N. H. (8).

Maryland Golf Title Will Be Sought by Nine D. C. Teams

Most of Them to Play At Home in Series Starting Sunday

Nine local country club golf teams will start in the Maryland State Golf Association team championship tourney next Sunday, with most of them playing at home, actoday by the State association.

Indian Spring, the defending championship outfit, is one of the three local clubs which will play at Baltimore. The Four Corners club team, headed by pro Mel Shorey and amateur Roger S. Peacock, will open defense of its title against the Bonnie View Club of Baltimore at Bonnie View. All matches will start about 1:30 Sunday.

Here are the pairings: Woodmont vs. Woodholme at Woodmont; Hill-League at the Lucky Strike as endale vs. Elkridge at Elkridge; Indian Spring vs. Bonnie View at Bonnie View; Argyle vs. Capital at Capital: Congressional vs. Beaver Roger E. Newlond of P. W. A. is Dam at Congressional; Kenwood the new president of the Interde- vs. Terra Mariae at Terra Mariae; partmental Mixed League, which Manor vs. Baltimore Suburban opens its season at 5 p.m. next Club at Suburban; Chevy Chase knock the Indian off a Buffalo nickel threw one pass to Sachon good for Monday at the Lucky Strike. He vs. Green Spring Valley at Chevy Rolling Road and Baltimore kin, Farm Credit, treasurer, and Country Club teams drew byes, and terfly if he gets beyond the line "Dutch" Bergman, who can ill afford Clarence P. Lewis, scorer. The mam- will meet in the second round the of scrimmage. moth loop also will roll on Wednes- winners in the Woodmont vs. Woodholme match and of the Green Teams will consist of the club with scoring on the Nassau system. match. Captains of the Washing- selected on the Little all-America ton teams are: Argyle, William H. Fox: Beaver Dam, John R. Miller; Capital, George Molloy; Chevy Chase, Robert Stead; jr.: Congressional, Tom Belshe; Indian Spring. Dick Melvin; Kenwood, John O. Bergelin; Manor. Harry G. Pitt; Woodmont, Leopold Freudberg.

Mamakos Will Battle Aron in Return Bout

Steve Mamakos, Washington welterweight who upset the dope by holding top-ranking Milt Aron to a draw several weeks ago, has signed for a return match at Chicago. The bout will be staged October 15 over the 10-round route.

Mamakos, knocked out by Phil Furr a month before his match against the clever No. 1 challenger on the National Boxing Association list, but turned in a surprisingly good effort. Aron later claimed he match and insisted on a second

On Golfing Program

Indian Spring announces a field day for all local golfers, to be held at that club October 16. One of the features of the affair will be a club-throwing contest. In addition an all-day golf tourney will be held, to be supplemented by driving, pitching and putting

Prince Georges Boys Have Ace Slab Pair

Evan Bale and Arthur Bray were Electrical League with eight games the outstanding pitchers for the won out of nine rolled. Jim Hol- Prince Georges County Police Boys' land's 161 also was a feature. West- Club during the season, according team scores of 587-1,670 posted by right-hander, won seven games against no defeats, while Bray, a counts and Deposits is on top with southpaw, lost only one of seven tilts.

Neither needed relief. Batting stars of the club were Redmond, third base, .351; Bale, .305, and Bray, .300. The club scored 207 runs to 53 for opponents, winning League title with only 2 defeats in 20 games.

Annapolitans Challenge

napolis would like to schedule games with Washington elevens. Write C. M. Russell, 11 North Cherry Grove, Annapolis.

Blaze School Grid Trail

The first scholastic football game of the season in Washington goes on tomorrow between Woodrow Wilson and Devitt at the Wilson Stadium. Game time is 3:30 p.m.

Three Champs in First Flight Of Congressional Club Golf

through the top-flight pairings in the title tourney of the Congressional Country Club, whose match rounds start Saturday. The second for outdoor life EISEMAN'S F ST. AT SEVENTH

Hampden-Sydney and Roanoke Ace Backs May Steal Shows In Terp and Hoya Openers

reptitiously planted in enemy terri- stealing their thunder tory comes the brow-raising-and positively secret—information that music must less saw second fiddle it's hard to believe.

Murdock Is Real Threat.

Bill Hancock, 195-pound right halfback, is the boy Georgetown must watch when it trots out to battle two years ago. Hancock is a blocking back offensively, and a one-man their squads yesterday, the Cards gang defensively who may be a bit boisterous with the Hoyas' highly touted backs and cause them some embarrassment Both Roanoke and Hampden-Sydney lost their openers last week

By LEWIS F. ATCHISON. | given to understand they are fairly By carrier pigeon and dime mes- good, and it wouldn't do to have senger from undercover sources sur- lad on the other side of the line

Brosnihan of C. U. Injured. Catholic University's scrimmage he best backs on the fields in the with Maryland yesterday was a Maryland and Georgetown inaug- costly one for the Cardinals who lost urals Saturday may be wearing Francis Brosnihan, promising reenemy uniforms. And they won't be serve back, who made the mistake District players parading in disguise. of trying to tackle Don Shockey too This smacks of downright heresy high. The bull-like Terp fullback at College Park, where Joe Murphy hit him in such a way Brosnihan's is recognized by all his friends and leg was pinned underneath his body. visiting firemen as a pretty fair X-rays were to be made today to back. It's nothing short of high determine if it was fractured or treason at Georgetown, where the whether it was a case of severely backs can't even read a note of torn ligaments. Shockey runs with a high knee to an alien ball toter. Gad, man, action when moving straight ahead and it's almost suicidal to hit him But even Maryland's coaching on the thigh or legs. A defensive board admits L'il Joe has a rival back really has only two choicesin the first act of the season, be- waist-high or around the shoe-tops cause they saw Hampden-Sydney and Brosnihan chose the former, but with their own eyes last week at could not check Shockey's forward Lexington and now wish they hadn't motion sufficiently to protest him-

Charley Moutenot Cardinal triple-The cloud in Murphy's sunny sky threat, got in his first scrimmage of could be Buddy Murdock, 158 the year during the afternoon and pounds of pure greased pork in a if his damaged knee holds up under broken field, a punter such as Bill the strain of a tough season will be Guckeyson, and a passer who can a big help to Pete Sachon. Moutenot at 40 yards. This gentleman is a about 35 yards and seemed to be his grade A material and may be old self running the ball. His pertougher to nab than a jittery but- formance, was gratifying to Coach to lose his services this autumn.

Hank Sant' Ambrogio's back injury will keep him on the sidelines longer than expected. He was not in Roanoke Saturday night. He is a uniform yesterday and probably will pupil of Gordon (Pop) White, wizen- not be back in time for the Detroit ed Maroon mentor who developed game next week. His loss is a three points for each best ball Kenny Moore, a great end who was damaging blow to the small squad. Both Catholic U. and Maryland were satisfied with the showing of scoring twice to the Terps once, but the latter gained more ground.

Kowalski to Long Island

Ed Kowalski, former Georgetown and figure to take another on the University tackle; has been purchin Saturday, but it means no sur- chased by the Long Island Indians cease from worry for the local mas- from Wilmington in the American terminds continually hounded by the Association of pro football clubs. bugaboo of injuries and inferiority Long Island is owned by Bill Shea, complexes. Both squads have been another Hoya alumnus

A. and D. Golf Team Big Threat To Take Federal Title After Furr a month before his match with Aron, was given no chance 4-2 Upset Win Over G. A. O.

By WALTER McCALLUM. hole final round, starting at 9:30

Accounts and Deposits links team the title among the Government departments and agencies. Victors yesterday over a favored General Accounting Office team in the first of a round robin series at Kenwood, the Accounts and Deposits team have one more match to play. If they can pile up a big margin in the final match, scheduled for Kenwood October 8. they may win the title again. Government Printing Office won it last year, and received the handsome trophies presented by The Star.

by 51/2 to 1/2 over Public Buildings.

Aggies to Play G. A. O. As the round robin series now stands, with two matches to go, Ac-4 points won. Next week General Accounting Office-the losers-will meet Agriculture in the second Norman Mattingly, catcher, .375; Joe | match of the series, and Agriculture will meet A. and D. October 8. The series will be decided on total points won. Accounts and Deposits, Agriculture and General Accounting Office all won their section titles earlier in the year. Jerry Hart and Ted Rutley with a best ball of 68, got G. A. O. off to a flying start in their match, winning 2 points from Bob O'Malley and Don Miller of A. and D., while dropping one. But in the next match Jack Palmer and John Miller of A. and D., both of whom play points from Joe Wilson and Jack Harris with a best ball of 70. Harris ton with 99-29-70. alone had a 74, and got little help. O'Malley, although on a losing team, had the best score with a 73. Walker George, No. 1 man on the Reconstruction Finance outfit, topped the scoring in that match with a 78. George and George from Ken Abernathy and Wayne Van Leer of Public Buildings. Charles B. Rollins and Walter O'Donnell of R. F. C. swept all three points from M. Daidy and George Wheeler of Public Buildings.

Winkler won 21/2 points for R. F. C.

Oliveri Drops Publinx Title. Andy Oliveri's reign as city public links champ is over-for a year, at least—and Pappy Leoffler, czar of the public courses, won't have to buy a new cup for a while. Had Andy won it again this year he would have retired the mug. But Andy dropped his title to a whirl of subpar golf late yesterday by R. A. Jennings, hitherto an unknown on the public courses. Jennings scored a one-over-par 73 to lick the 1938-9 titleholder by 3 and 2.

Jennings today clashed in a 36-from the Treasury Department, win- Smith, who won his way to the final ner of The Star-sponsored match with a 3-and-1 victory over John play championship in 1938, is back Jankowski, the former Catholic U. again with another strong bid for halfback, now director of a boys' Yesterday's summaries:

Third round—R. A. Jennings defeated Sparky Dawson. 4 and 2: Andy Olivera defeated Ken Zent. 6 and 5: John Jankowski defeated Keith Kallio. 3 and 2: Leroy Smith defeated Wilbur Seay.

or Betty Meckley is going to be While Accounts and Deposits was finished with competitive golf, were handing out a 4-to-2 licking to but you'd never have believed it the General Accounting Office boys. as she stroked her way around that the Reconstruction Finance outfit tough little Woodmont course in was winning the class B champion- 81 to win the gross prize in class A ship with an overwhelming victory of the tourney for the Washington This match also was played at Ken- day at Woodmont and Kenwood, the latter the club where the high > handicap women played. But Betty admitted she wasn' quite right. "I got tired," she said." and I missed some short shots. Guess the rest did me some good, though for I hit those long shots very well. Betty also one-putted the first five greens. So because the story got around that Betty was finished as a linkswoman don't think she has softened up. The steadiest feminine golfer around town is as rugged as ever, and will go on to win a lot more tournaments and champion-

Mrs. Medley Cup Winner.

Mrs. C. P. (Tops) Medley of Indian Spring won the low-handicap net prize with 90-13-77. In the highhandicap division the gross award went to Mrs. Jack Jago of Kenwood their golf at Beaver Dam, won all 3 with 98, while the top net prize went to Mrs. H. Ingman Harr of Washing-Results in the low-handicap division at Woodmont: Gross) Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood).

81; net—Mrs. C. P. Medley (Indian Spring), 90-13-77; Mrs. L. G. Pthy (Manor). 84-5-79; Mrs. J. S. Phillips (Army Navy), 92-13-79; Mrs. F. R. Keefer (Chevy Chase), 98-18-80; Mrs. Gale E. Push (Manor). 92-12-80; Jerry Welble (Kenwood), 93-13-80; Mrs. W. E. Hall (Columbia), 94-13-81; Mrs. C. T. Frownfelter (Beaver Dam). 96-15-81; Mrs. Leo Walper (Capital), 85-4-81; Mrs. Leo Walper (Capital), 85-4-81; Mrs. W. R. Stokes (Manor), 84-2-82.

High-handicap division at Ken-

Mrs. David H. Clark and Mrs. Bishop P. Hill co-medalists in the Chevy Chase women's championship. drew as opponents in the first round today Mrs. J. W. Beller and Mrs.

Riverside Stadium

Kurt Hanson

World's Greatest Riders Competing This coupon and 44c good for one seat in the special $1.10 Reserved Section. Wednesday Only.

41 5 13*28 10 2 NEW YORK.

One out when winning run was scored.

Travis. 3b
Bloodworth. 2b
Sanford, 1b
Pofahl. ss
Early. c
Krakauskas. D Di Maggio, cf

WASHINGTON.

Was Poison Last Year.

season the veteran scored over the Emil had a very close call from as his lone success against them

Murphy, back on April 28, when the Bombers just once, and they beat

(Called account of darkness.)

Totals 42 6 16 30 15 1
Washington 001 022 000 055
New York 200 000 102 1—6
Runs batted in—Di Maggio, Dickey,
Walker (2), Travis, Myer, Case, Keller (2), Selkirk, Rolfe. Two-base hits—Gordon (2), Crosettl, Rolfe, Donald, Leonard, Lewis, Double play—Selkirk, to Dahlgren, Left on base—New York, 13; Washington, 11. First base on balls—Off Sundra, 1; oo Leonard, 3. Selkirk, Sinden, 15 in 9 by murphy, 1. Hits—Off Donald, 2; off Sundra, 1; oo Leonard, 3. Sinden, 3. off Carrasquel, 2. Struck out—By Leonard, 4; by Donald, 1; off Haynes, 3; off Carrasquel, 2. Struck out—By Leonard, 4; by Donald, 1; off Haynes, 3; off Carrasquel, 2. Struck out—By Krakauskas, 4; or Murphy, 2; by Sundra, 1; by Murphy, 1. Hits—Off Donald, 2; off Murphy, 1. Hits—Off Donald, 8; in 4½ innings; off Murphy, 1. Hits—Off Donald, 15; in 9½ innings; off Murphy, 0; in 1 inning; off Murphy, 0; in 1 won in the 10th by the Yankees, it seemed quite an effort for him to 1.653. 6 to 5, and he wound up minus a single triumph in the Yankee park. Thus Leonard, with 14 victories far outbalanced by 17 defeats, hardly year Leonard was plain resembled the pitcher who in 1939 won 20 games and was one of the New York has boasted. But this outstanding hurlers of the majors.

It was a sad day for a Washington club which has lost 10 games here this season, and today seeks final playoff, come home today with to save that last one. In the after- a chance to wind up the series on piece Bucky Harris called on Joe their home grounds—by winning Krakauskas, who suffered his sixth three straight games. defeat of the season. On Septem- Behind the six-hit hurling of ber 4, by 6 to 5, Krakauskas got his George Washburn Newark last night lone victory of the season against won, 4-3, in 10 innings. the Yankees. Harris had a hunch,

The Senators were beaten in both

The batting hero on the Wash ington side was Cecil Travis, with two long triples. Jim Sanford's showing in the nightcap impressed

Ruffing pitches against Masterson

Cleveland A. C. to Hold Parents' Grid Clinic

dinals. Rita Pitts, a newcomer, rolled The new Lafayette Alley manager 342 for the losers. Cecelia Kartzinel, assistant secretary of the